

THE DOPESHEET

JANUARY 2005

JANUARY STEAK FLY

January 1st we will have our annual steak fry at the club field at 1:00. Contact Gene Jarvis if there is really bad weather. This cook out is for the pilots that flew in the fun flies through out the year. Bring your plane and be the first in the air and maybe the first crash of the New Year.

Officers for 2005 are:

Pres. Jim Nolan
V.P. D Lindsey
Trea. M Baker
Sec. J Lindsey

Jack Johnston has resigned his office of treasurer after ten years of faithful and dedicated service. I speak for the entire membership when I say "thank you for your sacrifice".

JANUARY MEETING

The January meeting has been changed to Jan. 8. It will be at the Kirby Risk building located at 10th and Walnut. Use the north door. Mike Perkins is providing biscuits and gravy at 9 a.m. and the meeting will start at 10 a.m. Duwayne Lindsey will give a demonstration on how to repair crashes. He's the local expert, but then he has to be.

CHRISTMAS PARTY 2004

The Christmas party is over and if you missed it you will have to wait till next year to have another one. Jimmy would like to thank everyone that helped and everyone that attended. Max Brown won the Doug Kincaid award. Steve Buck won Man of the Year. Several others were recognized for their contributions throughout the year.

MODEL OF THE MONTH

Dale Goff won the model of the month with a scratch built American Eagle Eaglet. It was copied from a full size plane Dale had seen on a trip the club took last summer.

Don Huber WON CRASH OF THE MONTH.

For a good time
